

Too Much Too Little, The Role of Water in Adaptation to Climate Change

GROUP 3

Storm Surges and Coastal Erosion

- A. Presentation #1 (15min)
- B. 1-2 (short) clarification questions
- C. Presentation #2 (15min)
- D. 1-2 (short) clarification questions
- E. Each table discusses and writes down 3 key challenges and/or opportunities (30min)
- F. Each table presents results to room and rapporteur writes on slides (1min each 😊)
- G. Remaining time for open discussion & choice of 3 key-key challenges/opportunities (+/- 15min)

Storm Surges and Coastal Erosion Challenges (policy/practice)

- Loss of land (Pressure on buildings and cultural heritage)
- Conflicts of interest (Business; Planners; etc.)
- Potential damages on cultural heritage
- Increased Erosion
- Lack of public awareness
- Cooperation (local, regional, international)
- Improve communication between stakeholders (Trust)
- Private Investment
- Local solutions evolving municipalities

Storm Surges and Coastal Erosion Opportunities (policy/practice)

Better Planning

Independent Mediator to solve conflicts/problems

More sustainable society

Involve stakeholders for integrated approaches

Business opportunities